Fall 2005

Miller

by Beverly Overmyer

Every cat at ICS has a personal story. Some are sad, many happy and a few even funny. But Miller's story is special. He's somewhat of a medical miracle.

The stout orange-and-white kitty caught Michelle Pearson's eye when she began volunteering at the shelter after moving from Indianapolis in 2003 with her husband Greg. She admits to having a soft spot for strays, sharing their home with four cats—one of them also orange-and-white.

Miller became a favorite of Michelle's when she went to visit the cats in Freckles room (ICS has names for all our rooms). He was very mellow and sweet, and never pushy, patiently waiting his turn. When Michelle was petting Miller, she noticed that he had a sore on his nose.

After several trips to the local vet, Miller was diagnosed with an aggressive skin cancer that, if left untreated, would become painful and disfiguring. The Pearsons discovered that a vet at Purdue pioneered laser surgery* for this condition, but the cost was $1500.

The members and volunteers at ICS answered the Pearson's plea for help in financing Miller's surgery. More than $1700 was raised quickly and Miller traveled to Purdue Small Animal Clinic in West Lafayette, chauffeured by Greg. He says our medical miracle always makes the rounds visiting his friends.

Be an Adoption Counselor

Volunteer Focus: Adoption Counseling

By Diana Vollmer

An interview with Joan Hildebrand

I thought it was time to start giving back to the community and I love cats, so it was a pur-fect fit! It's also very rewarding to see one of our cats go to a new home. With the explosion of unwanted pets because people don't spay and neuter, our shelter provides a much needed community service.

We're looking for dedicated adoption counselors, if you want to be a counselor and can donate one weekend day per month, please come in and complete a volunteer application—the rewards are wonderful!

What we do —

- Greet visitors to our shelter.
- Explain procedures for visiting the cats.
- Provide information about shelter adoption procedures.
- Provide information to callers regarding various cat issues.
- Help potential adopters choose their new friend.
- Screen potential adopters to be certain our cats go into the best loving homes. ■

The good news is that after three treatments, Miller is fine and Purdue charged ICS only $300 for the surgery, dipping into a fund they have for shelter animals.

"Miller is a very special cat," Michelle says. "I hope that one day he gets the kind of loving home he deserves."

Miller lives in Freckles' room with his senior friends.

*Photodynamic therapy is a laser treatment in which a chemical solution is absorbed by the cancer cells, but not by the healthy ones. A laser is then focused on the area, and the light is absorbed by only the cells containing the solution. In this way, the cancer cells are attacked, but the healthy cells are not harmed. Miller's had several trips to Purdue for follow-up appointments. ■

President's Message

Sue O'Leary recently resigned from the ICS after many years of service, and her effort and hard work will be missed. I have been elected President, and along with our incredibly dedicated volunteers, will continue our mission to improve the quality of life for cats, especially those in our care.

Speaking of volunteers, they are the bedrock of our organization. Without volunteers, our cats would have no hope or no future. Starting with this newsletter, ICS is kicking off a drive to increase their numbers so we can move forward with the many projects and improvements we have in mind. So please, if you don't yet volunteer and could find a way to fit us in somewhere in your schedule, please do. If you can't, spread the word to others what a rewarding place ICS is to volunteer. Whatever your talents and abilities, our cats need them. Now with no further ado, we are proud to introduce our Volunteer Recruitment spokescat, Uncle Archie, and he wants YOU!

Uncle Archie

Come visit Uncle Archie and all his friends at the shelter soon. See you there! ■

Spay and Neuter Task Force

Toddles, the Spay and Neuter Spokescat

Hello, everybody! My name is Toddles and I have been chosen to be the new Spay and Neuter Spokescat. Yes, it's kind of embarrassing, but I'm still honored. I was chosen because I have been here at ICS since I was a kitten in the spring of 2003. At first, lots of people came and played with me, but it was always another kitten that got to go home. I didn't take it personally. I know I'm a great cat with a lot to offer. But there were just too many kittens; there always are. Pretty soon people met me and asked if there were any "little kittens." And so here I still am, and may well stay my whole life. Now don't get me wrong, I'm not unhappy and I know how lucky I am. But I want everyone to know that there are just too many kittens!

The volunteers at ICS are starting a Spay and Neuter Task Force to do everything they can to keep more homeless kittens from being born. There are lots of jobs to be done, from grant writing to education to helping trap and transport cats to the vet. Could you maybe help us out? Just e-mail newsletter@hotmail.com and somebody will let me know. Also, maybe stop in and see me some time? I am definitely available and have not given up hope! ■

Sponsor-A-Cat! A Win-Win Situation!

If you can't take me home, can you Sponsor-A-Cat?

by Claudia Nay

There's excitement in Sing Sing today! "Meeoow", Pinky cries out as she grooms her fur and straightens her whiskers one more time. "How do I look, Diva, Violet?" "Girls", Lucky mumbles. Bacchus just yawns and sighs. How many adoption days has he seen come and go? Too many to count. It would be nice to have something to look forward to.

Yes, it is adoption day and most of the residents ARE excited. They may find a home of their own today, but, in Pinky's case, there is something else to be excited about. Pinky's sponsor is visiting today. She'll have treats, time to play and friends who will give some attention to everyone in Sing Sing.

Judith Shepherd is Pinky's sponsor. Judith saw an ad in the LaPorte newspaper over a year ago and has been a sponsor ever since, visiting once a month. Judith lives in a condo and is only allowed to have two pets. An animal lover, she felt this program gave her a wonderful chance to enlarge her family and help homeless cats. Judith brings her friends and they have gotten to know many of Sing Sing's residents. "Pinky actually selected us on our first visit. Now we find her waiting at the door to welcome us!"

"Having a sponsor is the next best thing to a home of your own", Pinky says. "At least you know someone cares about you." Judith is waiting for the day she receives a letter telling her Pinky was adopted. She will then select someone else to sponsor.

Many people, for various reasons, cannot welcome a pet into their home. But you can expand your family by becoming a sponsor. Even if you live too far away for a visit, your monthly contributions go a long way to provide a comfortable life for a shelter cat.

Pinky

A sponsor receives a photo and biography of their sponsored cat. Displaying the photo is an easy way to make the cat part of your family! It's a win-win situation! The cats receive love and attention. Their medical and food expenses are covered. The sponsor gets the satisfaction of making a difference in a homeless cat's life.

Wouldn't you like to open your heart and be a sponsor? There are still many cats just waiting for a special friend. They'd like to be excited on adoption day, too! And who knows, maybe you'll fall in love. Just ask Max. But that's a story for another day. ■

New Volunteer Opportunity

Become a Room Parent!

Do you have a favorite group of cats at the shelter? Would you like to really make a difference in the quality of life for those cats? If so, then this is your chance. We are looking for people who are willing to become "Room Parents" for a specific room. Room parents can be involved in a multitude of ways that will benefit the cats psychologically, socially, and medically.

Having volunteers who can spend time with the cats can be a huge help for the Cat Care Committee. Room Parents can note who seems to be losing weight, dehydrated, needing their ears cleaned, or any other potential problem. They can help clean ears, trim nails, give vaccines and flea treatments. Those who are interested in helping with these care needs should call Kristie Hill at 219-617-8195. But it doesn't stop there. Just like in grade school, Room Parents can provide treats, have holiday parties, even decorate. Why not have a holiday party that includes a small tree with kitty-friendly edibles and toys? Imagination is encouraged! Room Parents can also raise help funds for much needed improvements in their physical environment.

These are just a few ways Room Parents can get involved. No one person is expected to do all of them. The important thing is for our cats to have the chance to have special people who will be advocates for them. If you would like to have more information, e-mail us at newsletter@hotmail.com, or send in a volunteer form noting your interest. ■

Holiday Shopping for the Cats

Did you know that you can make your friends and family happy AND help the cats at ICS? Here are some unique gift ideas that are sure to be appreciated. You can find incredible soaps and bath products at www.jeffreysgoodsoap.com that must be tried to be believed. Red clover — to die for! Chocolate? Guilt-free bliss. The soapmaster is a good friend of the shelter and donates a portion of every purchase. Personalized and environmentally-friendly gift baskets are available and shipping is FREE through Dec. 23. There will also be Jeffrey's Good Soap available at the Holiday Open House, so stop by and sniff for yourself.

Diamonds may be a girl's best friend, but natural stones and silver are always a great choice. Unique artistically designed Handcrafted Jewelry by Elaine will be on display at the Holiday Open House. Come check out her beautiful selection, and give in to the urge to get one for yourself while you're at it to accessorize your holiday outfits.

Looking for that unique gift for the cat lover on your holiday list? You can purchase a Sponsor-A-Cat membership for just $10.00 a month. The certificate you receive will make a great stocking stuffer! The new sponsor will receive a photo and biography of his or her sponsored cat in the mail. Just complete the coupon in this newsletter. A great way to say "Happy Holidays" to your friend or relative AND a homeless cat!

You certainly can't forget your cats this holiday season. While you're sipping eggnog or toasting with champagne, why not treat your feline friends to some holiday cheer of their own? Stop by the shelter or the Open House and get a few bags of our wonderful Calico Corny's Crazy Country Catnip. Visions of sugarplums (or at least mice!) will dance in their heads when they slumber in one of Claw-dette's Sweet Dreams Kitty Beds. Cats are guaranteed to love these luxurious beds, which just get softer after washing. The next morning, make sure your cats find several of our Homemade Toys under the tree. All of these are available at the shelter or Holiday Open House.

Happy Tails

Patience makes the heart grow fonder!

by Kerry Ann Wolfus

Patience lounges on a floral quilt at the Heavilin's home. At the sound of our voices she is up and ready to follow Lorraine into the bright kitchen where Ralph welcomes us. I see that she has dropped a few pounds and looks fabulous in her Dilute Tortoiseshell outfit.

Six months ago her life was very different. She was dropped at the shelter seven years ago, a sickly but sweet kitten. After time and attention Patience was healthy and full of spunk. She was adopted as a teenager. She had a home for a year and a half.

She was returned for HAVING TOO MUCH SPUNK! A loaf of bread was missing and Patience was the culprit. She woke her people early in the morning. She attacked the screen door. When Patience came back she was depressed and didn't get along with other cats. They cornered her and gave her trouble for her outspoken opinions. She was given her own cage.

Over the years she got fat and a little grumpy but Ralph and Lorraine always got an enthusiastic greeting when they came the first Saturday of every month. "Patience was always there in the top cage," Ralph tells me. "When she was moved to the lower cage I thought I cannot see her die in there...Lorraine, let's take her home!"

It was meant to be. The reasons Patience was returned, the bread burgling, early hours and bug chasing on the screen door are charming personality quirks to the Heavilins. They say her name could be "Nosy" or "Impatience". She wants to be in on everything and has never met a stranger. They took a chance on an older shelter cat with spunk and found love and happiness, and so did Patience. ■

*Thanks go to the Unity Foundation for their grant to assist with our spay/neuter expenses.
 We offer our appreciation to Vale Park Animal Hospital for volunteering to make ICS their "Day of Caring" project.*

Materials were 100% donated which made a huge impact on the total cost of the project. Carter Lumber in Westville not only donated materials, but allowed us to store and deliver shingles. Ray Ameling arranged the shingle donation with Wes England from GAF Shingles in Michigan City. Plywood was provided by Universal Forest Products in Westville. Frank's Clean-Up Service was kind enough to give us a reduced rate for dumpster rental.

Your generosity and concern for our cats is greatly appreciated. Thanks also to Becky Bolton and Bill Hilton, Greg Fleishman, and Jim Granzow for unwrapping the shingles, and to Sue Ogg who took on the monumental task of coordination. Come drop in at the shelter, visit our cats, and see how nice it looks!

Note on Thank You's: Due to recent reorganization of ICS, there may be people we have inadvertently missed. Please accept our apologies and know that we are very grateful for everyone's contributions, both financial and of time and caring.
